Liability

- The customer takes all reasonable measures to maintain the roof in a serviceable condition.
  - The customer must advise The Installer in writing of any leaks arising in the roof within fourteen days of discovery. In the event of a claim being invalid (the roof is not the cause of the leak or there is no leak) customer agrees to pay the installer a reasonable call out charge for a survey and provision of a report in the sum of a standard hourly charge as would be expected depending on distance and time required this is to be determined by The Installer.
  - The Installers and Employees of The Installer must be given free access to the roof during normal business hours in order to inspect or repair the roof.
  - This Guarantee shall be in respect of the service life of the above installation in relation to the effects of normal weather conditions. It shall not apply if damaged by any other means such as subsidence, vandalism or tampering of any kind or excessive foot traffic over areas not previously stated by the client to be used for this purpose.
  - This guarantee does not cover installations that have been altered, changed or tampered with in any way.
- The Installer shall not be liable for: a) the cost of any routine maintenance, overhaul, modifications, loss or damage arising therefrom, b) any damage or defect caused by any peril capable of being insured under a commercial property, household or similar policy of insurance whether or not such insurance is effective or in force at the time or for which compensation is provided by legislation, c) any loss of use or consequential loss of any nature, d) any damage caused by war risks, sonic booms, terrorism or nuclear radiation as provided by the insurers standard exclusion clauses, e) any damage or defect caused by storm or deterioration due to neglect in maintenance.
